Greetings from Progressive Travel!

These are exciting times for us as we continue to grow. We added yet another coach in the past few months and along with that we have trained more drivers. We are also in the process of adding staff for both our maintenance shop and our office. I am a firm believer in small business and the personal touch that only a truly small business can offer. There is a reason why we continue to grow – it is the direct result of our corporate integrity and having people who truly care about other people.

Over the years we have been blessed to have many, many chaperones who make travel possible for adults with cognitive disabilities. I cannot say enough about the dedication and true kindness our chaperones have shown for our clients. From one day tours to adventures that take us across the United States, our chaperones make Miles of Smiles tours happen. We are always looking to expand our loyal staff of chaperones, so please contact us should you or someone you know have an interest in becoming a chaperone. There is no greater feeling than knowing you have made life better for another fellow human being. With that said, happy travels and join us for an adventure this year. We can assure you, there will be Miles of Smiles!!

Regards,

Joe Burnett, President

Howdy Cowboys and Cowgirls! We are fixin' to go to the rodeo in Spooner, WI. So pack your bags, saddle up and get ready to hit the trail and have a good old time!

Our first stop on our two day tour will be in Chippewa Falls at Irvine Park Zoo. They have lots of animals for us to see including tigers, bobcats, cougars and bears. Which one will be your favorite?

After our stop at the zoo, we head to Bloomer to the Main Street Café for our included lunch and don't forget to leave room for pie! They have so many pies, it will be hard to choose just one! With full tummies we load the coach for a short drive to Spooner, WI.

Yee-haw! It's time to rustle up some vittles, also called food by you non-cowboy speaking people, from one of the many food stands that will be at the rodeo grounds. There should be something tasty to find for everyone. You will also have time before the rodeo to look around at the many vendors and find that special rodeo souvenir. Then it's time to sit back and enjoy the show. After the rodeo we will head back to the hotel to hunker down for a real good night's sleep.

Friday, July 8, 2022

Because of our late night at the rodeo we can sleep in this morning and enjoy our included hot breakfast a little later than usual. We will have time this morning to relax a bit or enjoy the indoor pool at our hotel.

After our delicious lunch and our projects are complete, we will load the coach and head home, with one more stop along the way for an included scoop of ice cream!

As we now head back to Central Wisconsin, it has been a fun two day tour. We won't say good-bye to our friends rather let's just say "So long partners!" And we hope Y'all come back real soon! for another Miles of Smiles tour.
